Building Details

Heating features: Welcome to the Doncaster conservation land auction, a rare chance to acquire a substantial parcel of land in South Yorkshire's thriving Doncaster region. This unique lot, measuring approximately 8,568.49 square meters (about 1.01 hectares), is offered with a guide price of £15,000 plus. The site is located at White Rose Way, Doncaster, South Yorkshire DN4 5PN, and is described by the vendors as being of regional importance to nature conservation. It "may be" a Site of Special Scientific Interest (SSSI), making it a compelling prospect for investors, developers, and conservationists alike. The Doncaster conservation land auction presents an ideal opportunity for those seeking amenity land, biodiversity net gain (BNG) potential, or carbon offsetting solutions in a strategic location.
